

Multiple local councils promote a collection of photos depicting activists on women's rights issues, including support of abortion and government funding of Planned Parenthood. Below are excerpts from the Girl Scout recommended Ecosalon.com resource for girls. View online at this link: <http://ecosalon.com/20-photos-of-female-activists-throughout-history/>. See article intro and these dates - 1976: Anti-abortion protest (all images depict pro-choice stance), 2008: Pro-Choice Walk and 2011: Slutwalk and Planned Parenthood support. See examples of local councils promoting this resource on the next page.

ecosalon.com/20-photos-of-female-activists-throughout-history/

I am woman.

Throughout history, women have had plenty of reasons to be upset. From being denied the right to vote, to being robbed of basic civil liberties, to being told what they can and can't do with their bodies, female oppression has long existed, and it was only relatively recently that women gained the courage to speak up. We've come a long way, but as Rush Limbaugh showed us just last week, we still have a ways to go. In honor women over the past century.

1976: Anti-abortion demonstration at the Democratic National Convention in New York City.

2011: Slutwalk protest against excusing rape because of appearance.

2008: Pro-choice Walk for Life in San Francisco.

2011: Women across the country stand with Planned Parenthood as funding is cut.

<http://www.pinterest.com/pin/301459768777255180/> Girl Scout of Western New York links girls to the recommended article on Ecosalon.com: 20 Photos of Female Activists Throughout History

<http://www.pinterest.com/pin/508062401682806717/> Girl Scouts of Wisconsin – Badgerland links girls to the recommended article on Ecosalon.com: 20 Photos of Female Activists Throughout History

<http://www.pinterest.com/pin/501658845963933549/> Girl Scout of Southern Appalachians links girls to the recommended article on Ecosalon.com: 20 Photos of Female Activists Throughout History