VOICES FOR GOOD: WOMEN ADVOCATES THROUGH THE YEARS

1984

Geraldine Ferraro makes history as the first female vice-presidential nominee of a national party. A Democrat, she has a long record of advocacy for women. (In the Congress, as a Representative from New York, she spearheaded the drive for the Equal Rights Amendment.)

Girl Scout also features Ferraro in Girltopia, page 56 (page scan below)

“We’ve chosen the path to equality, don’t let them turn us around.”
