

In the official Girl Scout curriculum, Gloria Steinem, an iconic abortion rights activist, is promoted to girls as a “women’s rights activist” who has “moved sisterhood to where it is today.” See page scan below from Girl Scout Curriculum book, Mission Sisterhood, Page 65:

Steinem has founded multiple pro-abortion organizations including Voters for Choice and Choice USA
<http://www.gloriasteinem.com/who-is-gloria/>

Steinem’s support of the 2005 I Had An Abortion Campaign
http://www.ontheissuesmagazine.com/2012winter/2012winter_Baumgardner.php

Steinem’s recruitment of women for the 1972 We Have Had Abortions Campaign (scroll to We Have Had Abortions)
<http://nymag.com/news/features/ms-magazine-2011-11/index2.html> See also: image of Ms. Magazine’s original We Have Had Abortions Campaign signed by Steinem and others
<http://images.nymag.com/images/2/promotional/11/11/week1/mrs-abortionsb.pdf>

Steinem regularly fundraises for Planned Parenthood <http://www.plannedparenthood.org/planned-parenthood-mid-south-michigan/newsroom/pressreleases/steinem-stays-true-to-her-message-at-detroit-planned-parenthood-luncheon-detroit-news> Steinem is a well known abortion rights advocate and faithful supporter of Planned Parenthood, stating “There is no organization in this country or the world that is more important than Planned Parenthood” http://www.nj.com/mercer/index.ssf/2011/09/steinem_offers_support_for_pla.html

