

Girl Scouts USA and multiple local Girl Scout councils promote Hillary Clinton to girl members through on-line content. See examples below:

Girl Scouts USA marked President Trump's Inauguration by tweeting "Thank you for continuing to lead @HillaryClinton." <https://twitter.com/girlscouts/status/822527998352064512>

Girl Scouts USA and multiple local Girl Scout councils celebrated International Women's Day by dressing up girl members as "feminist heroes" including Hillary Clinton. <https://mobile.twitter.com/girlscouts/status/841334547392430080> (note: retweeted by multiple Girl Scout councils)

GSUSA tweet links girls to:

<http://www.refinery29.com/2017/03/144595/girl-scouts-feminist-icons-international-womens-day>

Girl Scouts USA celebrated Hillary Clinton's presidential candidacy as a top 10 moment of 2016, honoring her as a "proud Girl Scout alum [who] made history and inspired many girls and women across the country." <http://blog.girlscouts.org/2016/12/10-times-girls-ruled-2016.html>