

Many local Girl Scout Councils promote Planned Parenthood founder and eugenicist Margaret Sanger to girl members. See examples below:

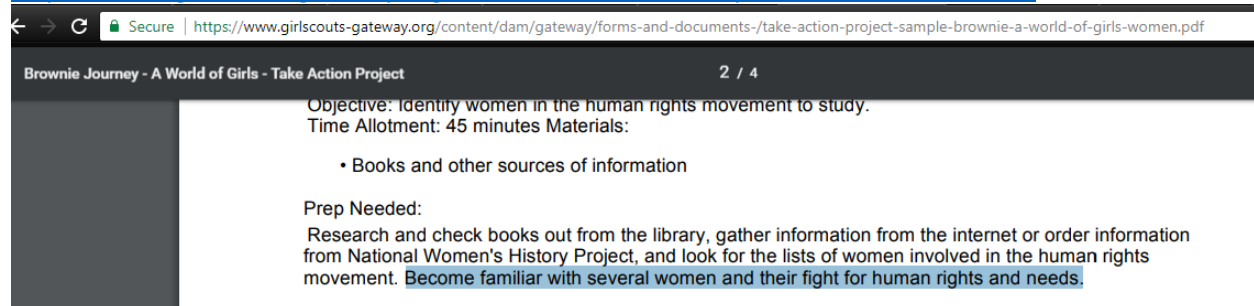

Girl Scouts of Gateway Council recommends girl members research Margaret Sanger to learn about Sanger's work as a "Human Rights and Needs" activist. See Girl Scouts of Gateway Council "Take Action" project for Brownies (grades 2-3) at this link:

<https://www.girlscouts-gateway.org/en/for-volunteers/Troop-Leaders/Brownies.html>

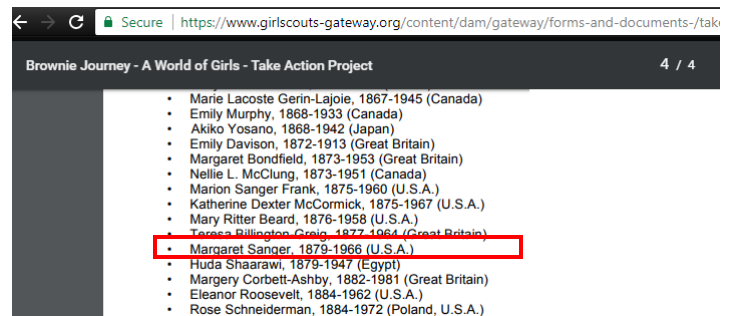

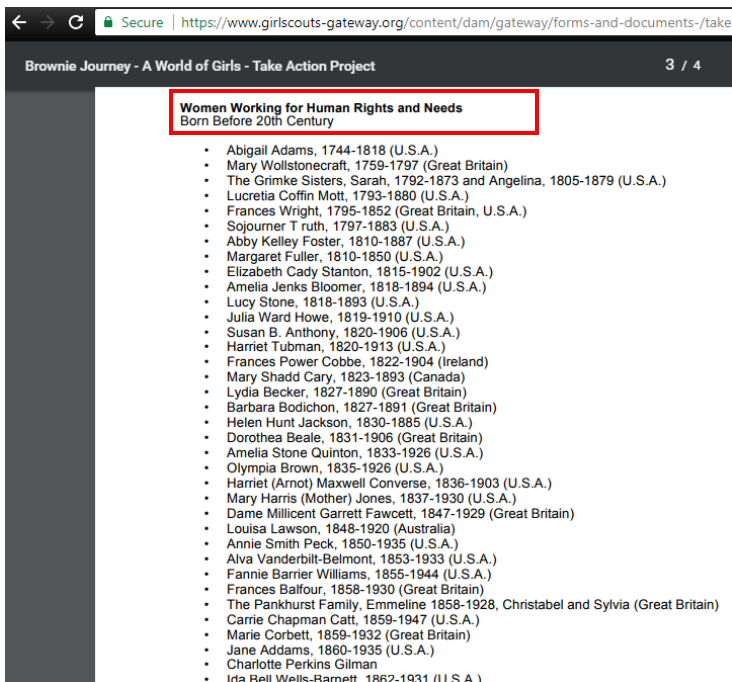

In this project, girls are asked to "become familiar with several women and their fight for human rights and needs." See page 2

<https://www.girlscouts-gateway.org/en/for-volunteers/Troop-Leaders/Brownies.html>

The project guidelines provide a list of "Women Working For Human Rights and Needs" which includes Margaret Sanger See page 3-4:

<https://www.girlscouts-gateway.org/en/for-volunteers/Troop-Leaders/Brownies.html>

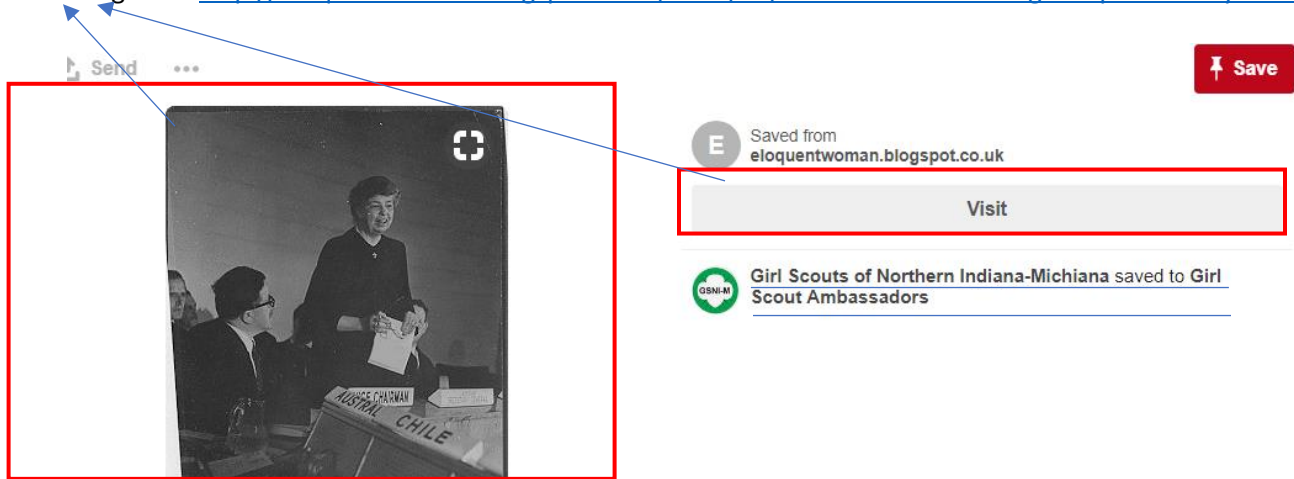

Continued on the next page

For girls as young as 11, many councils promote "The Eloquent Women: 13 famous human rights speeches by women" via social media. Highlighted speeches for the girls to study include Planned Parenthood founder Margaret Sanger's speech on women's rights to birth control.

Girl Scout councils promoting Margaret Sanger to girls through this resource via official Girl Scout social media include:

- Girl Scouts of Northern Indiana Michiana <http://www.pinterest.com/pin/562035228467618710/> which links girls to <http://eloquentwoman.blogspot.co.uk/2013/05/13-famous-human-rights-speeches-by.html>

- Girl Scouts of Greater Chicago/NW Illinois <http://www.pinterest.com/pin/242068548694140172/>
- Girl Scouts of Northeastern New York <https://www.pinterest.com/pin/333688653610951495/>
- Girl Scouts of NE Kansas/NW Missouri <https://www.pinterest.com/pin/481814860105125596/>
- Girl Scouts Heart of New Jersey <https://www.pinterest.com/pin/536561743075057103/>
- Girl Scouts of the Green and White Mountains <https://www.pinterest.com/pin/188588303119781615/>

Screenshot below from Girl Scout recommended resource highlighting speech by Margaret Sanger <http://eloquentwoman.blogspot.co.uk/2013/05/13-famous-human-rights-speeches-by.html>

