About
Women Who Make America tells the story of how women have helped shape America over the last 50 years through one of the most sweeping social revolutions in our country's history, in pursuit of their rights to a full and fair share of political power, economic opportunity and personal autonomy. Narrated by Meryl Streep, the documentary builds on the unprecedented multi-platform video experience from PBS and AOL, MAKERS.com, which launched in February 2012. Leveraging the combined reach of television and the internet, the project shares the stories of exceptional women whose pioneering contributions continue to shape the world in which we live. Neal Shapiro, President & CEO WNET New York Public Media in partnership with Girl Scouts of Greater New York and Girls Inc. of New York City invite you to celebrate women and girls in an event featuring program highlights from the highly acclaimed documentary with a discussion featuring special guest MARLO THOMAS joined by Dyllan McGee, Founder & Executive Producer Catherine Morrison, Former Girl Scout/Princeton Student Amy Richards, Co-Founder, Third Wave Foundation Diane Spillios, Educator Panel moderated by Juju Chang, Correspondent, ABC.
